

Answer ID

1787

CategoryMedicare Prescription Drug Coverage
SSA Premium WithholdingDate Created

04/26/2006 02:58 PM

Last Updated

11/15/2007 03:28 PM

Can it take longer than a couple of months for the deduction to start?Question

Can it take longer than a couple of months for the deduction to start?

Answer

Premium deductions generally start two months after your Medicare drug plan submits the request. It can take longer if there are problems with the request. Social Security will keep track of the number of months for which premiums are due. They will withhold the total premium amount that is due the first time they make a deduction.